

Allowing big media companies to own a larger stake than already can is a step in the wrong direction. Corporations like Clear Channel have already ruined radio and the live music industry, and giving them more buying power is not in the best interest of the consumers. Please listen to the taxpayers and do not allow media consolidation to reach this dangerous extreme. Thank you.